"The War To End All Wars"

By Jonathan Dale

Admission : £3.00

For all you u3a history buffs out there, this talk by Jonathan Dale, Chairman of the Birmingham Branch of the Western Front Association, about the First World War, promises to be fascinating.

The causes and reasons for the First World War were complex, but in the previous 200 years, the Western Powers led by strong monarchies and powerful democracies had colonised every continent in the world. This did not leave much room for any new and expanding powers, such as the recently unified state of Germany. This New Germany then flexed its' muscles and challenged the status Quo and looked for "Welt Raum".

The rest, as they say, is history! Come and join us to hear more!
