"Local Murders of the 19th Century"

By Vanessa Morgan

Admission : £3.00

A gruesome topic, but an exceedingly interesting one, well researched and presented by Vanessa Morgan, the author of seven books published by for The History Press, three of which were for their popular murder and crime series.

In this talk, Vanessa is concentrating on murders which were committed spanning from Worcester to Derby and all points in-between, however, she will emphasise those as local to us in Sutton as possible.

With quotes taken from the newspapers of those days we'll also discover how differently murder was reported back in those days.
